The Partridge Inn: For More Than A Century this most famous of Augusta's old-world hotels has served as a tranquil retreat for heads of state, captains of industry, international celebrities, and other luminaries. I stayed here when I attended the Masters in 2007 and I have to tell you, the standard of the southern hospitality which is an integral part of the Partridge experience is like none I've experience before. True there are no high-end resort-style amenities - golf course, spa, and so forth, but at no time during my stay did I feel that I was less than well-served or without anything at all! I even had a covered parking space.

Close to the Center of Things: Set on a quiet hilltop in Augusta's historic Summerville neighborhood, only minutes from the hustle and bustle of one of Georgia's most vibrant downtown districts, The Partridge Inn has epitomized excellence in Augusta since 1892. Today, the same standards apply as they did back in 1892.

The Amenities are Extensive: The hotel's facade belies its size: 145 elegant guest rooms, studios and suites, finely appointed with luxurious furnishings, decor and amenities, more than 5,000 square feet of meeting space, accommodating up to 250, offering the greatest variety of function rooms in the region and more than a quarter-mile of verandas and balconies, outside of the guest rooms, wrapping around the hotel. Add a full complement of state-of-the-art refinements, a secluded outdoor pool, and an award-winning restaurant to further enhance the experience and you soon realize you're staying in one of America 's landmark lodging destinations.

To Make Your Reservation: You can visit the hotel's web-site for more information, or to book your stay at the Partridge Inn, or you can contact them by telephone at 800-476-6888 or Local: (706) 737-8888 Fax: (706) 731-0826
